AMUSEMENTS.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" AT THE PARK THEATRE. Notwithstanding the thunder, the lightning and the rain, the Park Theatre had a fair audience last night to see the first performance of the famous play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" on the west side of the town for a long while. The play was received by the house with laughter and applause, and we think that it is a worthy successor of Mr. Rowe's "Brass" and will probably have a learner with the central was the central we a long run. Mrs. G. C. Howard was the central have a long run. Mrs. G. C. Howard was the central figure of the piece. This actress is identified with the character of Topsey, which she created, and in which she is far above rivairy, and, indeed, without a real competitor on the stage. If Mrs. Howard had given as much study and as many years to what is supposed to be the legitimate dramn as she has devoted to the creation of Topsey she would have made her mark, beyond doubt, as one of the finest "society" actresses of our time. Her performance of Topsey is full of humor, pathos, energy, eccentricity and human character. The scenes in the third act were inimitable. At times she moved the audience to laughter by her deficious singing and dancing, and again made the eyes of the ladies, especially, dewy by her natice and passionate repentance. Mrs. Howard has made a specially of Topsey, and deserves no ordinary credit for the intellectual methods with which she has displayed a character of Southern America which is now ante bellum, and, because of the results of the war, almost as eximic as the tossils of the anaceflavian age.

The acting generally was very good. Uncle Tom was well rendered by Mr. George Kunkel and St. Clair by Mr. Howard. Cassy was finely played by Miss Roso L. sle, whose only misfortune this season has been that she has been obliged to play characters below her powers, and, as it were, "to crush a butterfly upon a a wheel" or "raise a wulriwind to drown a fly." Acut Ophelia was well played by Mrs. J. W. Brutone, and the Georgia Jublice Singers were warmly received. We admired, as all the apectation's seemed to do, the charming performance of Bijou Heron as Eva, yet it is to be hoped that this promising actress will not be pushed too strongly. She has much ability, but she is merely a child, and it would be a pity to make a hothouse pressure on the budding flower or to brush the bloom from the tender peach.

"JULIUS CESAR" AT BOOTH'S THEATRE. gure of the piece. This actress is identified with the

"JULIUS CESAR" AT BOOTH'S THEATRE. The revival of this spectacle at Booth's last night was welcomed by a good house. There was the old caste, and the reappearances of Mr. Lawrence Barrett, Mr. F. C. Bangs and Mr. E. L. Davenport were received with hearty applause. This is the only week of "Julius Cresar" at Booth's, as nearly all of the actors have engagements elsewhere—Mr. Lawrence Barrett going to California, the Roman legious returning to Ireland and Mr. Tooker accompanying the last line to the Pacific.

SAN PRANCISCO MINSTRELS.

There was a lively and joyous entertainment last evening at the charming little home of negro ministrelsy on Broadway. All the best features of this popular fund of amusement were strictly maintained-to wit, elty, fun and refinement, and a strict adhesion to the main ideas which from the beginning attracted so much attention to this quaint exhibition of talent. The much attention to this quaint exhibition of talent. The programme last evening included everything that as calculated to excite the risibility of a fair assembinge. With Mr. Wambold in his exquisite rendering of "Little Darling, Smile on Me," and the subsequent exhibitions of Mesers. Birch and Backus in their inimitable impersonations, to say nothing of Mr. Ryman's exceedingly humorous temperance lecture, the audience had every excuse for the frequent outbursts of laughter which resounded throughout the house. The imitations of popular classical artists by Mr. Backus are worthy the close attention of every misanthropist. "Julius the Snoozer," a peculiar anaptation of a well known Shakespearean production, brought a really delightful performance to a close.

programme less evening included everything that was calculated to excite the raphility of t which it was interspersed. Miss Adah Richmond, Miss Lizzie Keipey, Miss Nellie Allen and Mr. Harry Allen sustained the principal parts in the barlesque, and in overy lostance generous applause greeted their efforts. The audience seemed well pleased with the entertain-

CENTRAL PARK GARDEN.

The concert at Central Park Garden last evening was adly interfered with in regard to attendance. Yet the musical features were of no little interest. Downing's probestra, thirty-three strong, played Rossini's over-"L'Africaine," Lassen's festival overture, opus 51, the well known Pizzicato polka of the younger Johann Strauss, selections from Vordi's "Masked Ball," a lovely serenade by Schubert, and "Du und Du" waltz, by Strauss.

The soloists were Mmc. Marie Salvotti, an excellent singer and thoroughly accomplished artiste; Miss Lizze M. Rae, a clever débutante, and Mr. Hammond, a talented cornet player. The management proposes to engage Mile. Marie Almee, at $1,000 per week, for the summer. It may prove a good speculation.

BROOKLYN NEW PARK THEATRE. A new Irish drama, rejoicing in the decidedly Celtic name of "Kerry-Gow-Dhuivl," was presented for the first time at this theatre last night. The play is called a new one, but it is certainly not the plot or dialogue which merits this epithet. All the friends of our childhood were present on the stage—the old Irish villain, the young "colleen," with her unreasoning love for the ardent patriot; the Saxon soldiers and the "cause." There were, however, some things which may fairly be called original. A horse was shod upon the stage by Mr. Jee Murphy, who, is report says true, is a member of that honorable profession which is so remarkable for muscle. The costumes were rather recentric, and had the rare merit of combining almost rvery fashion that has been in vogue since the time of Charles L, of lamented memory. The English was also redolent of various climes, in fact, every variety, from the nasal twang of New England to the rich brogue of Connaught was heard in turn. "The Doyle Brothers" is to supplant this ingeniously named drama next week, od were present on the stage-the old Irish vil-

"BRASS" AT THE RECORLYN THEATRE.

Mr. George Fawcett Rowe made his first appearance in Brooklyn last night as the erratic and irrepress Waitton Stray in his original comedy "Brass." Mr. Rowo played with all his usual vivacity, and kept the Rowo played with all his usual vivacity, and kept the audience in constant laughter by his amusing characterization. There were several changes from the original cast at the P.rk. Miss Kate Girard played Mary Markson with remarkable strength and feeling for so young an actress. This lady is gitted with an excluding the stage appearance and a sweet and tolling voice, and she no doubt will, with careful training, make a useful and accomplished actress. Miss Mand Harrison, who is a great favorite at this theatre, played charmingly as Alice Massham. Mr. Vining Bowers was good as the Admiral, when he did not forget his lines. Mr. Cyril Searie, who played a juvenile part in New York, made a new departure and appeared last night as Mr. Markson, the lawyer. Mr. Searie has not done wisely in thus abandoning a part in w. ich he had made a decided success. "Brass" is advertised for every evening this week and for a matinée on Saturday.

Rossi has written a letter to the London Telegraph in reply to the English criticism of his Hamiet. in the common acceptation of the word." The follow-ing is his interesting description of the character:—

be expressed as regards detail of gesture, judial expression, vocal accest, in any way congenial to the artists' natural mode of conveying emotion. There are vivacious Northerns and heavy apathetic Southerns. The point is to seize the character of the man Hamiet, and express it as the artist, whatever his own temperament may be, would express the emotions incident to such a character were they his own. This is my general view of Hamiet, and if I have conveyed the expression that I consider him affected with positive insanity, the impression is so erroncous that I cannot believe it to originate in myself, but in some such foregone conclusion as that openly expressed by one of my critics when he condemns my future impersonations beforehand.

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING.

MARRIAGE OF MISS CONSULLO YZNAGA DEL VALLE TO THE VISCOUNT MANDEVILLE.

The marriage of Goorge William Brogo Montagu Viscount Mandeville, cidest son of the Buke of Manchester, of Kemboliton Castle, Huntingdonshire, England, with Miss Consuelo, eldest daughter of Señor Don Antonio Yznaga del Valle, of No. 262 Fiith avenue, in this city, was solemnized yesterday afternoon in Grace church, Broadway and Tenth street, by the Rev. # OBITUARY.

PAYMASTER'S CLERK WILLIAM P. GARDNER, UNITED STATES NAVY.

Intelligence has been received in Boston of the death of William F. Gardner, Fleet Paymaster's Clerk, at tached to the South Pacific squadron, and son of Cap-tain Oliver C. Gardner, of Gardner, Mass. On the 4th of February he was admitted on the sick list with ore eyes, caused from exposure to the high winds of Valparaiso, Chill, which are illied with fine dust, and the climatic changes experienced on board ship. The removal of one of his eyes becoming necessary, chloroform was administered and the operation performed March 19, but he lived only ten minutes after, and was buried at Valparaiso, March 22. Young Gardner is very highly spoken of by the officers of the squadron.

GRAND JURY IRREGULARITIES.

During the session of the late Grand Jury of Hudson county in Jersey City complaints of a most serious character were presented. City officials were indicted for bribery and malfeasance, and the indictments were afterward reconsidered. The County Clerk, Mr. Brann afterward reconsidered. The County Clerk, Mr. Brann, placed important papers in the possession of the Grand Jury, and the more important documents were spritted away or destroyed. When he demanded the return of these papers yesterday from the cierk of the Grand Jury he was informed that only a lew of them could be found. The system of selecting grand juries by commission has become a standing reproach. Official frauds are covered up at every term of court and notorious malefactors go unpunished.

RHODE ISLAND REPUBLICANS. MEETING OF THE DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION-THE DELEGATION

BELIEVED TO BE FOR BRISTOW. PROVIDENCE, May 22, 1876. The Rhode Island delegates to the National Republican Convention met in this city to-day and organized. Ex Lieutenant Governor Charles C. Van Zandt, of Newport, was elected chairman, and Edward L. Freeman, port, was elected chairman, and Edward L. Freeman, of Central Falls, secretary. The informal discussion of candidates for the Presidency brought out tile fact that two prominent gentlemen whose names have been mentioned in connection with the office had friends among the deigates. They claim to be unpledged; seven out of the eight are counted for Bristow. Edward L. Freeman's paper, the Central Falls Vizitor, is out and out for Bristow. Ex-Governor Howard is said to be the only unpledged deigate, but it has leaked out that he is for Blaine. Note are counted for Conking. An effort will be made to have the vote cast unanimously.
